PLANTS WANTED

Have you spare plants? From Astilbe to Zinnia we need all types!

Now is the time for you to pot up and prepare the plants you might like to give to the Summer Fayre plant stall - by doing it now they will be nice and established and look good for the sale. Please have a chat with Julian or Anne Gray for further information.

Sunday Reflection

Every week the York Diocese offers a new reflective prayer video for your personal use. This week Acting Dean of York, the Revd Canon Michael Smith, reflects on Luke 9.51- end. For the reflection please go to: vimeo.com/dioceseforyork.

As we go out from church.

There is a world out there, just waiting for the good news we carry. There are people out there, hoping for the kind of hope we have.

There are lives out there, waiting to be shaped and changed by God's love, through us. May we go out and seek to serve the God who loves us. Amen.

Opening Prayer

God of each moment, we give to you this moment of prayer.

We bring to you all that we are,
All that we feel, all that we think.

Move in our hearts and minds today.

God of each hour, we give to you our time of worship this day.

Use this space to fill us again with your love,

That we might be champions of love in the world around us,

And that we might sing your praises.

Move in our hearts and minds today.

God of each day, we give to you this day,

The opportunities that will arise to share your good news with the people we meet,

The failures we are already aware of, or live in fear of.

Forgive us for our failings this day, Lord God,

Move in our hearts and minds, by your grace.

God of each year, we give to you this year,

The days and weeks to come,

The hopes and anxieties we hold in our hearts.

Even as we thank you for all that we have received,

We look to trust you for all that is to come.

Be the way maker for us today, O God,

And move in our hearts and minds,

By your Spirit. Amen.

A Pilgrimage Prayer

Everliving God,
be our companion on the road
and show us the path of life eternal.
May all our journeys
converge upon the journey home to you, and all our longings find their rest
in your unchanging grace.
Bring your peace and justice to our world and guide by your Spirit the communities of the North.
Kindle in your Church the faith of Cuthbert, Aidan, Hilda and all the northern saints, that with simplicity, humility, and courage
we may follow in their way, finding it none other than the way of Christ,
in whose precious name we make this prayer.
Amen.

Stephen Cottrell, Archbishop of York

Collect and Readings for 2nd Sunday of Trinity

Collect (Prayer for the week)

Lord, you have taught us that all our doings without love are nothing worth:
send your Holy Spirit and pour into our hearts that most excellent gift of love,
the true bond of peace and of all virtues,
without which whoever lives is counted dead before you.
Grant this for your only Son Jesus Christ's sake,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Galatians 5: 1, 13—25

It is for freedom that Christ has set us free. Stand firm, therefore, and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery.

For you were called to freedom, brothers and sisters; only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for self-indulgence, but through love become slaves to one another. For the whole law is summed up in a single commandment, "You shall love your neighbour as yourself." If, however, you bite and devour one another, take care that you are not consumed by one another.

Live by the Spirit, I say, and do not gratify the desires of the flesh. For what the flesh desires is opposed to the Spirit, and what the Spirit desires is opposed to the flesh; for these are opposed to each other, to prevent you from doing what you want. But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not subject to the law. Now the works of the flesh are obvious: fornication, impurity, licentiousness, idolatry, sorcery, enmities, strife, jealousy, anger, quarrels, dissensions, factions, envy, drunkenness, carousing, and things like these. I am warning you, as I warned you before: those who do such things will not inherit the kingdom of God.

By contrast, the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. There is no law against such things. And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. If we live by the Spirit, let us also be guided by the Spirit.

For the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Luke 9: 51—62

When the days drew near for Jesus to be taken up into heaven, he set his face to go to Jerusalem. And he sent messengers ahead of him. On their way they entered a village of the Samaritans to make ready for him; but they did not receive him, because his face was set toward Jerusalem. When his disciples James and John saw it, they said, "Lord, do you want us to command fire to come down from heaven and consume them?" But he turned and rebuked them. Then they went on to another village.

As they were going along the road, someone said to him, "I will follow you wherever you go." And Jesus said to him, "Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head." To another he said, "Follow me." But he said, "Lord, first let me go and bury my father." But Jesus said to him, "Let the dead bury their own dead; but as for you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God." Another said, "I will follow you, Lord; but let me first say farewell to those at my home." Jesus said to him, "No one who puts a hand to the plough and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God."

This is the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to Christ our Lord.

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

Eternal Father,
we thank you for nourishing us
with these heavenly gifts:
may our communion strengthen us in faith,
build us up in hope,
and make us grow in love;
for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
